STOP

Stop and give yourself time to make a good decision. Don't pressure yourself and don't let others pressure you.

ASK

Ask questions about costs and risks. Keep asking more questions until you're sure you understand what you're paying—and what you're getting

VERIFY

Comparison shop to make sure you're getting a reasonable deal. Pay attention if something seems too good to be true.

ESTIMATE

Estimate your costs. Online calculators and tools can help you compare just about any financial product or service.

DECIDE

After you've finished your homework, make your decision.

Board Member Spotlight

I'm Gary Sievert, Vice Chairperson of the MCCU Board Of Directors. It has been both a pleasure and privilege to serve you as a Director of the CU Board, for the last 7 years. I wanted to take a moment to thank you for being a member of such a vibrant, friendly, warm and caring organization. As a Board, it's not lost on us that we wouldn't be any of those things as an organization without valuable and outstanding members like all of you! As in the case of any successful organization/business loyal and trusting members are the foundation of that success! With that, on behalf of the Board as well as the dedicated and committed staff of the CU we want to pass along a genuine and heartfelt thank you. Your trust and support in the CU is very much appreciated and never, ever taken for granted!

May you and your family's holidays sparkle with moments of love, laughter, and goodwill. And may the year ahead be full of contentment and joy. Have a happy holiday season on behalf of the MCCU Board of Directors!
